

Money – Biblical?

"I really wish the pastor wouldn't speak so much about money, and giving money, in his sermons" said a disgruntled woman to her friend as they left Sunday morning worship.

"Why not? It is biblical, you know."

"Biblical? I don't believe it. And besides, we give enough money to help pay for his salary and utilities and upkeep of the church. By the way – what makes you think it's biblical anyway?"

"Try reading the teachings of Jesus with stewardship eyes sometimes. You will be amazed at how much Jesus speaks about money and possessions. In fact, did you know that his teachings include 361 verses on prayer; 398 verses on faith; 478 verses on love and over 2,000 verses mention money and possessions?"

"Well, to tell the truth, I didn't know that. I guess I don't know much about the Bible. Perhaps I should be reading and studying it more"

"I've got an idea! Why don't we gather a few more friends and start a small study group. I'm sure there are others that don't understand the meaning of stewardship as it is in the Bible."

"That's a great idea. That would help me a lot. You know, maybe I'm already beginning to understand, thanks to you. If our pastor is true to the teachings of the gospels, he does have to talk about money and possessions."

"You've got it!"
