

Rise O Church Like Christ Arisen

Sometimes
new words are needed to express our faith in God to inspire us to live as Jesus lived.
So that we can leave this place sure of God's love for us energized confident that God is always with us.

But instead of a new melody
sometimes,
just as for Martin Luther,
an old
familiar melody is what we need to sing out confidently, surely,
and then we can really hear these new words.
