

Sharing the Joy of Stewardship

Most of us find it challenging to respond to the pressures and requirements of every day life. The tasks of maintaining our homes, family, livelihood and meeting our primary needs for food, shelter and recreation often fill our days. Frequently we might find ourselves at the end of a day realizing we have managed to get through the daily routine yet in some way may feel that we have not taken the opportunity to enrich our lives spiritually and emotionally. Perhaps the first step in improving our sense of fulfillment is to make a commitment. Please review and reflect upon the following commitments. There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit gives them. There are different ways of serving, but the same Lord is served. There are different abilities to perform service, but the same God gives ability to all for their particular service. 1 Cor. 12:4-6
